Teaching Bursary Eligibility Flow Chart

Do you hold a place on a PGDE ITE programme for one of the following subjects – chemistry, computing science, home economics, physics, technological education, Gaelic medium primary/secondary, Gaelic as a secondary subject?

— No → You cannot apply for the Teaching bursary until you hold either a conditional or unconditional offer of a place for 2023 start.

↓ Yes

Do you hold a 1st or 2:1 Honours Degree in a subject that is relevant to your chosen teaching subject?

— No → Do you hold a Masters Degree in a subject that is relevant to your chosen teaching subject? (Please note that we do not accept Masters Level degrees such as a Post Graduate Diploma in lieu of a full Masters Degree.)

— No → You are not eligible for the Teaching Bursary

↓ Yes (from Honours Degree) / Yes (from Masters Degree)

Have you been in paid employment (including renumerated PhD which includes teaching experience) for at least 36 months out of the last 84 months (including career breaks)? You must be able to provide written evidence

— No → Do you hold refugee or other protected humanitarian status and can provide written evidence of this?

— No → Have you been in receipt of Carer's Allowance for 36 months out of the last 84 months and provide evidence of this (or can evidence a combination of Carer's Allowance and paid employment)?

— No → You are not eligible for the Teaching Bursary

↓ Yes (from paid employment) / Yes (from refugee status) / Yes (from Carer's Allowance)

Have you been in full time education since 30th September 2020?

— Yes → Was this time spent in full time education 12 months or less?

— No → Was this a remunerated PhD that included teaching experience?

— No → You are not eligible for the Teaching Bursary

↓ Yes (from 12 months or less)

Does your study comply with Clause 1.1.5 of the T&C?

— No → You are not eligible for the Teaching Bursary

↓ Yes

(No from full time education since 30th September 2020) / (Yes from study comply with Clause 1.1.5) / (Yes from remunerated PhD)

You may be eligible for the Teaching Bursary. Before applying please review the full eligibility criteria, FAQs and terms and conditions.